

I Still Remember [A]

Jordan Kyle

F#m D A E
All my life I've waited for something more

F#m D A E
Hoping somehow happiness would show up at my door

F#m D A E
Looking back on life I blew before twenty-two

F#m D A E
Smiling slowly fading from the face I once knew

Bm D
These are the voices that cry out (We are the Jesus the World sees)

Bm D
In pursuit of His Love (We need to bring it to its knees)

F#m D
I still remember when most normal people

A E
Would reach out a hand for the lost

F#m D
And then in December down near the steeple

A A2/G# E
They'd give out fine meals at no cost

D E D E A/C# D
So what has changed we have managed to lose touch of those

E
Who need us

F#m D A E
Think I'll end this life I know I'm dying too slow

F#m D A E
All my "friends" enjoy this show of how I might go
